

FiCLA SYMPOSIUM ON LANGUAGE AND THOUGHT

August 30th 2018 | House of Science and Letters | Lecture hall 309

Helsinki Finland

We warmly welcome you to FiCLA symposium on language and thought, to be held in Helsinki on August 30th 2018. The aim of the symposium is present and discuss state-of the art approaches to language/thought interface either from empirical or theoretical perspective. The symposium is organized in collaboration with the research project Language and thought of technology design (U of Helsinki, U of Jyväskylä).

With this symposium, FiCLA wishes to promote active exchange of ideas between linguistics and cognitive psychology and illustrate some current proceedings on the research topics these fields share. In particular, the symposium includes talks that concentrate on the emerging field of design discourse studies, but also linguistic studies that consider other points of convergence between language and thought. The plenary speakers are:

Professor Huili Wang, Dalian University of Technology
Professor Maria Teresa Bajo, University of Granada.

Program

09.00	Opening words
09.15	Plenary: Huili Wang: An Innovative Emotion Design Concept for humour
10.15	Arto Mustajoki (U of Helsinki): Why does our speech not always correspond to our thoughts?
10.45	Esa Penttilä (U of Eastern Finland): Word-for-word translation as a tool for investigating language-thought relationship
11.15	Hanna-Ilona Härmävaara (U of Washington): Metalinguistic comments as a window to the socially constructed cross-linguistic knowledge in multilingual interaction
11.45	Lunch
12.45	Franka Kermer (U of Eastern Finland): A Cognitive Grammar Approach to Temporal Categorisation in SLA
13.15	Maija Surakka (U of Eastern Finland): Temporally extended self in children. Linguistic and psychological views on the development of past time references
13.45	Jordina Frago Cañellas (U of Helsinki): Conceptual Metaphor and Image Schema Applied to Second Language Teaching: the Spanish Preposition por
14.15	Xiaolu Wang (Zhejiang University): Neuropsychological System for Chinese Non-literal Language Processing
14.45	Tiina Onikki-Rantajääskö & Tapani Möttönen (U of Helsinki): Co-construal of ideas: how to approach planning discourse from cognitive-linguistic perspective
15.15	Coffee break
15.30	Anna Mauranten & Alena Konina (U of Helsinki): In search of meaning – mapping speech segmentation to linguistic properties
16.00	Pertti Saariluoma (U of Jyväskylä): Problems of language in technology design thinking
16.30	Simo-Pekka Leino (VTT Technical Research Centre of Finland): Virtual prototyping: bringing out tacit knowledge in product development
17.00	Plenary: Maria Teresa Bajo: Psycholinguistic processes in design thinking
18.00	Closing words

Venue: House of Science and Letters, lecture hall 309, Helsinki, Finland.

Contact: Tapani Möttönen (tapani.mottonen@aalto.fi, +358 400 457 311)